City to hold Public Forum on Downtown Development

Administrators will dig into development procedures and policies.

MORGANTOWN – The City of Morgantown is holding a public forum in an effort to help citizens of Morgantown understand the B-4 Business District and new developments that are planning to occur.

The Public Forum on Downtown Development will be held Thursday, December 19, at 6 p.m. in Council Chambers at Morgantown City Hall.

City Manager Jeff Mikorski and Development Services Director/City Planner Chris Fletcher will be presenting information pertinent to local businesses, residents, and those interested in current and future development in the B-4 District.

The forum will air live on Channel 15, as well as on Morgantown Granicus, the City's live and archived video service.

If you need accommodations, please contact us at 304-284-7439.
